Prayer for Providence Park

Precious LORD our God and Savior:

We thank Thee that in 1876 Thou birthed our congregation and stationed us in this place and among this people for such a time as this. We thank Thee for presence in Thy Presence. We thank Thee for keeping us on Thy side in spite of our faults and flaws. We thank Thee that Thou hast blessed us with Thy saving grace and tender mercy. We thank Thee that Thou hast so saturated the soil upon which we stand with Thy goodness. We thank Thee for Thy Providence that supplies our every need according to Thy riches in Glory.

† O LORD, during this season of waiting and harvest, of sowing and reaping, of crossing over and transition, refresh us with Thy Power that we may practice the Gospel that is preached. Give us a fresh drink from Thy living water and a fresh serving of Thy living bread, that our lives may ever be replenished by Thy grace, that our hearts may be overwhelmed by Thy kindness, and that our hands may be extended to share Thy love to this neighborhood. Humble our hearts that we may not be haughty with those who are hurting or stingy with those in need of Thy mercy, but wise stewards of the blessings that Thou hast entrusted to us for the salvation of the souls who knock at our doors. Pour out Thy Spirit upon us, that we may remember our sins and be seasoned and sensitized by Thy mercy to handle with forgiving love the sinners among us and around us. LORD, cleanse our hearts of any wayward or ugly desires and mold our attitudes according to Thy will so that we may look beyond the faults of one another, see through the façades of would-be enemies, and step over the obstacles set before us. LORD, move us to embrace one another in truthfulness, faithfulness, and fruitfulness.

† Finally, LORD, in the name of Jesus, may Thy anointing be upon us that by the Power of Thy Spirit we might break every chain and every yoke, that no weapons formed against us might prosper, that the wicked might cease from troubling, that the weary might be at rest, that Thy goodness and mercy might follow us all the days of our lives, that we might claim the victory at our homes, on our jobs, at our schools, in our streets, that we might bless Providence Park, that every knee might bow and every tongue might confess that Thou art God and besides Thee there is none other in the name of Jesus. Amen. jcr: December 31, 2014
