Prayer for Lent

O Eternal Thou, our Heavenly Father: We bless Thy name for all Thy tender mercies—for forgiving all our sins, for healing all our diseases and sicknesses, for pulling us back from self-destruction and damnation, for crowning us with Thy covenant-faithfulness and heart-felt mercy, for saturating our souls with Thy bountiful goodness, and for renewing our strength. We come before Thee, this day, with deep gratitude and humility, to plead for more of Thy mercy and the continuation of Thy grace in our lives. We all have sinned and fallen short of Thy glory and goodness and grace. Iniquity has soiled our integrity; sin has stained our souls; and transgressions have triumphed over trust; have mercy upon us! We know that Thou art holy and righteous, tolerating no unrighteousness yet judging justly all in heaven and earth. We ask, right now, that Thy holy eye may look with compassion upon our case and pardon us, yea, forgive us for our many wrongs, as we now confess our iniquities and transgressions. Especially, we ask that Thy Spirit may come upon us and work over us, that Thy will may be in us and Thy way may be with us. Father, turn the key to our hearts, that we may have boldness to believe, courage to change, and care to love as Thou dost love and do what Thou wouldst do. This season, lead us to the cross, that we may understand and appreciate Thy self-sacrificing and life-giving love shown to us by Jesus of Nazareth. Take us to the cross, that we may be crucified with Christ, that we may no longer live as the sinners that we are, but that Christ may live within us. Show us the way of the cross, that we may be servants in season and out of season, publicly and privately. Yea, LORD, please remember us in our final hours, that we may remember Thee, that we may have that undying trust in Thee, that we may praise Thy name in sickness and health, that even upon our beds of affliction and death, both now and forever, we may glorify Thee by sanctifying the very souls and the very soil that Thou hast granted us. LORD, take us in Thine own time, that we may know Thee like never before, that we may behold Thy fullness, and that we may be with Thee in Thy bosom. Humbly, we pray, as the struggling sinners that we are, in the name of our Master, Jesus of Nazareth. Amen. jcr: March 4, 2001
