

Everyone Can't Be in Your Front Row

Life is like a theater—invite your audience carefully. Not everyone is holy enough and healthy enough to have a front row seat in our lives. There are some people in your life that need to be loved from a distance. It's amazing what you can accomplish when you let go or at least minimize your time with draining, negative, incompatible, not-going-anywhere relationships, friendships, or fellowships!

Observe the relationships around you. Pay attention to:

- Which ones lift and which ones lean?
- Which ones encourage and which ones discourage?
- Which ones are on a path of growth up hill and which ones are going down hill?
- When you leave certain people, do you feel better or worse?
- Which ones always have drama or don't really understand, know, and appreciate you and the gifts that lie within you?

The more you seek God and the things of God—the more you seek quality, the more you seek, not just the Hand of God, but the Face of God.

The more you seek growth, peace of mind, love and truth around you, the easier it will become for you to decide who gets to sit in the front row and who should be moved to the balcony of your life.

You cannot change the people around you...but you can change the people you are around. Ask God for wisdom and discernment and choose wisely the people who sit in the front row of your life. -Author Unknown

THANKS & LOVE!!!

Abundant thanks to YOU, the Loved Ones of Providence Park, for your many calls, cards, expressions, flowers, food, gifts, and prayers as well as company during these early moments of separation, as Momma Elizabeth J. Christian has ascended! We thank you for the love that you have shown toward her as well as us! We ask that you continue to keep us in prayer, as we heal by the resurrection-power of the LORD who keeps our family-circle unbroken.

Love,

Mrs. Annette C. & Pastor Jerome C. Ross
