John 20^{JCR}

11 But Mary stood at the tomb, outside crying. Then, as she cried, she stooped in order to see into the tomb 12 and observed two messengers in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus should have been. 13 And they said to her, “Woman, why are you crying?” She said to them, “They have removed my Master and I do not know where they have laid him!” 14 As she was saying these things, she turned to behind her and observed Jesus, but did not realize that it was Jesus. 15 He said to her, “Woman, why are you crying? Whom do you seek?” She, thinking that he was the gardener, said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him; I will go.” 16 Jesus said to her, “Mary.” Turning abruptly, she said to him in Hebrew “Rabboni” (which says “Teacher”). 17 Jesus said to her, “Do not handle me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, I am ascended to my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.” 18 Mary Magdalene came, announcing to the disciples that “I have met the Master” and that he had said these things to her. 29 Jesus said..., “Have you believed, because you have encountered? Blessed are the ones who have not literally seen yet believe!”
