2 Kings 4^{JCR}

⁴² And a man came from Ba'al-Shalîsha and brought to the man of God bread of the first fruits, ten loaves of barley bread, and fresh fruit in his garment. So, he said, “Give to the people and let them eat.” ⁴³ And his attendant said, “How can I set this before a hundred men?” And he said, “Give to the people and let them eat, for thus the LORD has said, ‘Eat and leave leftovers!’” ⁴⁴ And it was set up before them and they ate and had leftovers according to the word of the LORD.

Congregational Covenant

By the providence of Almighty God, we have assembled ourselves for worship in the Spirit of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

We affirm our unity in that Spirit and acknowledge our congregational relationship and individual responsibility for one another.

We pledge our support to each other as members of this congregation and participants in the baptized body of believers who receive Jesus Christ as Lord of life and victor over death.

We share this worship as a witness to our promise of prayerful concern for this communion. We covenant with one another that in daily duties and persistent practice we will seek the well-being of the other one for whom Christ also died. We willingly bind ourselves to the obligations of continuing fellowship.

Expecting to move toward the fulfillment of our association that we may know each other even as we have been known by our Heavenly Father
