

A Note of Thanksgiving

To My Providence Park Family, for all the blessings as well as the bumps—the care, the cards, and the cash—the hands, the healing, and the help—the labor, the learning, and the leaning on the LORD—the prayers, the preaching, and the presents—the troubles and the triumphs—
the yearning and the years,

Mrs. Annette Ross and I are eternally grateful!!!

As Your Pastor, I am the product of the 25-year walk that we have shared! I bear in my body the marks of the LORD as administered to my life through You—

Your strivings and Your successes,
Your ups and Your downs,
Your gifts and Your takings!

I thank the LORD for You in all
Your perks and Your peculiarities,
Your preciousness and Your promise,
Your perspectives and Your potential!

Especially, I thank You who have let me counsel and guide you—
mentor and teach You—comfort and love You as the LORD'S—yes, be Your Pastor!

I ever promise to give my best to You, to take no more than I need, to demand no more than I give, to be to You whom the LORD has commanded!

I promise to the LORD and YOU to love YOU as the LORD'S special treasure! Thanks for the privilege of being Your Pastor!
