Prayer for Veterans' Day

O LORD our Gracious Father, our Keeper and Savior:
 In appreciation of the life that Thou hast given us, the nation in which Thou hast placed us, and the very gift of freedom with which Thou hast made us, we thank Thee for those whose lives have been and are spent and given for our protection and security as a people- the deceased and the living veterans among us. O LORD, forgive us for the arrogance of nationalism, the defiance of political parties in high places, and the wayward hearts of men and women that have prompted such a need. Forgive our jealousy and strife that have caused the concern for the ways of war and have created a need for weapons. As we now consider the cost of not living according to Thy loving way, yea the price of war, please, protect our loved ones who must place themselves on battlefronts and be on the alert for would-be assailants. Keep them where, when, and how we cannot. Bless them with the conviction of faith in spite of every obstacle, even the face of death. Bless their spouses, children, and families who undergo trials in moments of absence of their loved ones, long nights of loneliness, and long burdensome days. O LORD, ever continue Thy crowning love upon those among us, who have undergone the trials of service to this nation, the ravages of war in distant places, and the very horrors of the hell of war. Comfort them, in the midst of the scars of battle that they bear. Soothe their hearts from the deep fears, the stress, and the strain of having to kill life in order to protect it. Strengthen our hearts and grant us courage to believe. Implant Thy seeds of hope and nurture that faith in Thee that will not shrink. Father, help us all see our faults, feebleness, flaws, and frailty. LORD, teach us Thy way of peace that we may have courage to stand for community. Show us how to protect without learning the way of destruction. Give us appreciation of life, that no heart may know war. And grant us the Peace of Thy Presence that surpasses all understanding through Thy Person and Power, that we may be living sacrifices as Christ. Amen. jcr: November 9, 2003
